ADDRESS
TO THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The People of Pennsylvania assembled in convention at Harrisburg, on the birthday of the Father of his Country, hereby nominated Gen. Simon Cameron for President of the United States.

This act is not done hastily, nor without careful consideration of all its consequences, and of all the issues involved in the present momentous struggle for the highest office in the gift of this great nation.

The reasons which have influenced us in coming to the conclusion we have reached, we now present to our fellow citizens:

1st. Gen. Cameron is the only man, so far as we can see, of all those now mentioned for the Presidency, who can unite the entire body of people who are opposed to the present corrupt and disgraceful Administration. That a majority of the nation are opposed to it we fully believe; but there is imminent danger, from the want, not of strength, but of Union, of a failure to elect any man who will be an honor to the country. It is very clear that any candidate who, on the one hand, is considered ultra or extravagant in his views, or who, on the other, would be considered as untrue to those principles of liberty which are the very pulsations of a freeman's heart, could not command the suffrages of the united Opposition. The man who will be elected must be able to carry Pennsylvania and the States which lie west of it, while, at the same time, there must be nothing in his character or history which will prevent his being received with entire cordiality by the Eastern States, by New York and by the North West. We are unable to name any statesman who combines these requisites except the man of our choice. For more than half a century no President has been elected without the vote of Pennsylvania. The loss of this State, and that of the others to which we have adverted, was the cause of our defeat at the last election. Let us learn wisdom by experience.

2. That Gen. Cameron's name is a tower of strength in Pennsylvania appears from our action to-day. But the causes of it are not obscure. He has been the early and unwavering friend of every measure calculated to develope the resources of the State and to protect its domestic industry. Not a mile of canal has been dug, nor a section of a railroad constructed, in which he has not taken an interest. In bringing the iron and the coal from their mines and making them productive and useful, he has been constantly active, and to no man more than to Gen. Cameron, can we confidently look for the restoration of the cheerful hum of neglected industry in this old Commonwealth, by nature so highly favored. A Pennsylvanian's heart is in him, and no man dare say that he has not constantly and unswervingly given his best energies to her welfare. And she, as is fitting, now presents him to the nation—his faithfulness to her is a pledge that he will be faithful to the whole country.

3. We present Gen. Cameron to the people as a national man in the best and highest sense. With some persons national character means only subservience to an aristocracy who are content to live in ease on the sweat of the brows of men whom they look down upon as their inferiors, only made to be perpetually servile.—Gen. Cameron believes in no such nationality. He is a self-made-man. He not only believes in free labor in others, but he has exemplified it in his own life. Possessed at first only of an honest name, derived from a virtuous and not undistinguished ancestry, having only a strong arm and a clear brain, he has himself gained by his own manly exertions every step of his way. He can sympathise by experience, with all classes of his fellow men. He has shown his ability to govern others by first governing himself. He has never sought a station which he has not gained; he has never failed in any undertaking which he seriously essayed. He has been equal to every station he has reached, and he knows himself so thoroughly that he will accept nothing for which he is not fully qualified. In regard to that great question now before the American people, and on which all men have a right to demand a frank expression of opinion—the extension of Slavery—Gen. Cameron's record is clear. Against the earnest pleadings of personal friends high in power he voted for the Wilmot proviso. Everywhere and at all times he has been on this subject a thorough Pennsylvanian. This State, was the first to abolish slavery, in her great emancipation law passed in 1780, seven years before the adoption of the Constitution of the United States, used the following remarkable language: "We conceive that it is our duty, and we rejoice that it is in our power, to extend a portion of that freedom to others which hath been extended to us, and release them from that state of thraldom to which we ourselves were tyrannically doomed, and from which we have now every prospect of being delivered. We esteem it a peculiar blessing granted to us, that we are enabled this day to add one more step to universal civilization, by removing, as much as possible, the sorrows of those who have lived in undeserved bondage, and from which, by the authority of the King of Great Britain, no effectual legal relief could be obtained. In justice, therefore, to persons so unhappily circumstanced, and, also, in grateful commemoration of our own happy deliverance from the state of unconditional submission, to which we were doomed by the tyranny of Great Britain"—they proceeded to pass an emancipation law.

In these noble sentiments, Gen. Cameron has ever occurred. While maintaining the absolute right of every State to manage its own domestic affairs, to adopt and control its own institutions, without interference from any quarter, he has inflexibly resisted all attempts to extend slavery; believing that its influence is always deleterious to the prosperity of any State where it is established. At the same time he is an earnest and cordial friend of the Union and the Constitution, under which it was formed. But while upholding these principles, he has never yielded anything to arrogance or assumption. He has calmly maintained the rights of his own State, understanding well that great principle that if we would have others to respect us, we must respect ourselves.

We ask with confidence, then, in what respect General Cameron fails of meeting the precise want of this time? Strong as adamant at home; carrying the States esteemed as doubtful in this contest; without one characteristic which is obnoxious to the opposition party in any quarter; a man ever calm, cool, able, clear, successful, patriotic, we ask his nomination by the National Convention as the certain pressage of his election by the people of the United States.

Resolved, That the following gentlemen be the Delegates at large, viz:

David Wilmot, Henry D. Moore,
S. A. Purviance, Andrew H. Reeder,
Thaddeus Stevens, Titian J. Coffey,
John H. Ewing, Morrow B. Lowry.

Resolved, That Gov. James Pollock and the Hon. Thos. M. Howe be the electors at large.

Resolved, That the present National Administration, by disregarding the just claims of the industrial interests of the whole country, by fostering sectional excitements and antagonisms, by conniving at schemes of land piracies, and by the rankest corruption diffused throughout all the departments of the government, has forfeited the confidence and respect of the people, has disgraced Republican institutions in the eyes of all observers, whether at home or abroad, and deserves a signal rebuke from the friends of constitutional order and of political justice.

Resolved, That corruption in the Administration of the general government, combined with federal usurpation, both of the delegated rights of the States, and the reserved rights of the people, have become so flagrant and audacious as justly to excite the most serious apprehensions in the breasts of the intelligent and thoughtful of our citizens for the stability of our free institutions, and especially for the maintenance of personal liberty and State sovereignty.

Resolved, That believing Slavery to be an element of political weakness and of social infelicity, we are unalterably opposed to its extension into free Territories.

Resolved, That the dogma that the Constitution, of its own force, carries Slavery into all or any of the Territories of the United States, is a new and dangerous political heresy, at variance with the explicit provisions of the instrument itself, with its contemporaneous exposition, and with legislative and judicial precedent, that it is revolutionary in its tendency, and subversive of the peace and harmony of the people.

Resolved, That the African Slave Trade is a relic of barbarism, condemned alike by the civilization, the humanity, the laws and the religion of the age; that the attempt to reopen it is an effort of the powers of darkness to bring again the reign of "Chaos and Night," which patriots, philanthropists and christians are under the most weighty and solomn obligations to oppose.

Resolved, That we view with just apprehension and alarm the reckless extravagance in expenditure which pervades every department of the Federal Government, and the steady and persistent departure from the principles and policy of the founders of our institutions, that the restoration of a system of rigid economy and accountability is indispensable to restrain the plunderers who feast upon the Treasury, and to prevent our politics from degenerating into a wild and shameful scramble for the spoils, in which personal decency and public morality shall be overthrown.

Resolved, That to maintain inviolate the rights of the States, and especially the right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions according to its own judgment exclusively, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depends, and we denounce now, as heretofore, the lawless invasion by armed force of the soil of any State or Territory, no matter under what pretexts, as amongthe gravest of crimes.

Resolved, That it does not enter into the scheme of the Opposition party to seek the abolition of slavery in the States where it now exists, but to leave the amelioration and ultimate abandonment of the system to the moral, religious and economic forces which pertain to the slave holding communities, assured of the final prevalence of justice throughout all the land, among all the inhabitants thereof.

Resolved, That to the union of the States this nation owes its unprecedented increase in population, its surprising development of material resources, its rapid augmentation of wealth, its happiness at home and its honor abroad, and that, consequently, we hold in abhorrence all machinations for disunion, come from whatever source they may.

Resolved, That the threat of disunion in case the Republicans and their affiliants shall elect the next President, repeatedly made in both Houses of Congress by Democratic members, not simply without rebuke, but with uniform applause from their political associates, is a denial of that vital principle of popular government; free election, and a bold avowal and countenance of contemplated treason, which it is the imperative duty of the people to sternly confront and forever silence.

Resolved, That while we are now opposed, as we have ever been, to the extension of slavery, we hail the people of the South as brethren, in whose prosperity we rejoice, and whose constitutional rights and privileges we are prepared to sustain and defend. That in the spirit of good neighborhood, whenever the passions of different sections of our common country come in conflict, we stand on the ground of mutual forbearance, believing that a fraternity of feeling is a chief element of our national strength.

Resolved, That in the enactment of revenue laws by the General Government, fair and adequate protection should be systematically afforded to the industry of all classes of our citizens. That we maintain a devoted attachment to the policy of national exchanges, which secures to the working men liberal wages, to farmers and planters remunerating prices for their products to mechanics and manufacturers for their skill, labor and enterprise, and to the nation commercial prosperity and independence.

Resolved, That we approve the policy of a donation by the General Government of a homestead to every actual settler upon the public domain, and we hereby request our Representatives to urge the passage of such a law without delay.

Resolved, That the purity and safety of the ballot box must be preserved, and that frauds upon the naturalization laws, continually resorted to by our opponents, ought to be counteracted by proper and wholesome legislation.

Resolved, That the influx upon us of foreign criminals is an evil of serious magnitude, which demands the interposition of a proper and efficient legislative remedy.

Resolved, That this Convention most cheerfully recommend to the people of Pennsylvania, Col. Andrew G. Curtin, the nominee of this Convention, as a candidate for Governor, and mutually pledge themselves to his support; that on account of his long and proved devotion to the Protection of American Industry, involving the dearest and most material welfare of the people of this Commonwealth, and his earnest fidelity to the interests of the labor of white men, and opposition to the extension of slavery over our territories, and as a representative of the principle of reform, retrenchment and integrity in the administration of governmental affairs, he is well qualified to receive the suffrages of the people of this central, conservative Commonwealth, which is unalterably and inalienably planted to the maintenance of the Union and the perpetuation of the constitution of the United States in its entire integrity, and according to its ex animo interpretation, and the real sense of its terms and language.

Mr. Petriken moved that the address and resolutions be adopted, which was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. Purviance moved that a committee of three be appointed to inform the Hon. Simon Cameron that he is the choice of Pennsylvania for the Presidency.

Adopted unanimously.

Whereupon the Chair appointed the following Committee:

Messrs. Purviance, Hampton and Williston.

Mr Williston moved that the resolution offered by him in the morning be now considered. It was read as follows:

The National Republican Executive Committee has called the National Convention of the party on the 13th of June, and have refused to change the time of holding said convention; and whereas, we consider the day named as too late and likely to endanger our national success. Therefore,

Resolved, that the Chairman of this Convention be directed to correspond with the Chairmen of the respective Republican Executive Committees of other States, urging immediate action to secure the fixing of an earlier day for the meeting of the National convention, not later than the second week in May.

The resolution was not agreed to.

The committee appointed to inform the Hon. Simon Cameron that he is the choice of Pennsylvania for the Presidency, have the honor to announce, that they have performed that duty, and that General Cameron expressed his profound gratitude for the eminent distinction conferred upon him, and his entire and hearty approbation of the proceedings of the convention; that the confidence of his fellow citizens of this Commonwealth, as shown by the action of this convention, is the more gratifying to him as it is the voluntary offering of those among whom he has lived in youth and manhood.

Mr. Darlington moved the following resolution:

Resolved, That the State Central Committee be authorized to fill any vacancy that may occur in the delegation of the State at large to the Chicago Convention, and in the electoral ticket.

Mr. Dickey moved to amend. "And that each elector give a written pledge to support the candidate nominated at Chicago, which was not agreed to.

The original resolution was then agreed to.

SPEECH OF COL. CURTIN.

Mr. President and Gentlemen: I would not be false to the natural pride which I feel in my nomination by this intelligent body. It is to me no personal triumph. I am happy to be in the exalted position in which your kindness has placed me—the representative of a great party, enjoying great political sentiments. It is not that I should personally have been preferred by this body to other gentlemen who contested this nomination, for I do not pretend to any superiority ever them which should have subjected me to your marked kindness. It is not a personal triumph. I have no animosity. I have no enmities to the friends that now surround me in this place, and I would obliterate from my memory the record of the vote by which I triumphed. I am a party man.—[cheers.]

My allegiance to the party has never been doubted, and when the drum beats I was not the tardy soldier to fall into the ranks at any part of my life. [cheers.] I congratulate you upon the harmony and unanimity with which the protracted sessions of this Convention have closed. There is success intimated in the extreme anxiety of the public. [cheers.] You have given me the nomination. You have placed me there my friends say, unanimously. [Loud cheers.] I am thankful that there was no animosity to me in the breast of any delegate in this body to make him refrain from giving to the candidate of the party the unanimity which he deserves at the hands of the Convention.

You have placed me in nomination. Do you imagine that your duty is performed? We battle with a foe long in power, well versed in political tactics, with means and appurtenances of men and money, and I need support in the great struggle which is to follow your action. I call upon the one hundred and thirty-three delegates, with the President at their head—whom I know well—to come into the field, make a bold effort, surround the standard bearer, and victory will perch upon him. Your duty performed, I have a duty to perform, and can assure you that my covenant will be performed with fidelity. I will take the standard of the party and plant it upon the shores of Lake Erie, and carry it to the Delaware. [Immense applause.]

The fight will commence soon. [cheers.] If I fall in the struggle, no matter. It is a man that has sunk under the pressure. But if I do fall, I will elevate the standard—for principles can never die. Carry the unanimity and sense of this convention into the Chicago convention; make the sentiment national. Give us a candidate for the Presidency worthy of the place. Let the voice of Pennsylvania be heard.—[cheers.] Let us have the position which we desire in the affairs of this nation, and the rank our position and necessities demand.

If victory go with us, something has been achieved for the country; nothing for the individual. Having served long and faithfully in the party, my personal triumphs must originate in the triumph of principle. If the principle fails, it is your fault, not mine. I am a feeble man, but I will perform my duty faithfully. Here I pledge myself to perform every covenant I this day make with you. [Cheering, loud and long continued.]

SPEECH OF MR. COVODE.

Mr. President and Gentlemen:—It is with pleasure that I come among you, and that I meet with you on this occasion. You have assembled here for the purpose of putting in nomination a candidate for Governor of this great and growing Commonwealth. As my name has been used in connection therewith, let me say that it has been done without much effort on my part to secure a nomination. I have made but few personal appeals, and therefore whatever support I may have had on this occasion has come from you, gentlemen, without the usual pressure, for which I feel grateful and will ever remember you. You have nominated a gentleman of distinguished ability, one competent and able to canvass the State, and proclaim your sentiments. There are other great interests, however, which override the question of Governor. The contest for members of Congress and for President of the United States comes off during the next summer and fall—a contest of vast importance considering the principles involved in the controversy, and the great interests which Pennsylvania has at stake. We should be, therefore, firmly united to carry our points against the corruption of the Democratic Administration. Let me tell you we are about entering a struggle, the like of which we have never undertaken, with a party that has to make its last desperate effort in Pennsylvania against the principles of protection and the elevation of the laboring man, the waite man. [Continued applause.] In view of the great importance of driving from power the administration which has sustained itself only by corruption, it is necessary that every man should buckle on his armor and go forth to victory. [Applause.] Let me tell you that this administration has not been able to elect a single member to Congress from Pennsylvania without corruption or deception. As a member of an investigating committee I have made the important discovery that the only power left to this administration in the North is its patronage and its ability to use it corruptly.—[Applause.] We have passed through a struggle on the Lecompton bill since I went to Congress, in which we were defeated—and how? Why, by direct negotiations.

A Voice. Where did the money come from?

Mr. Covode. The money came from the Treasury of the United States, indirectly, and was taken from your pocket, Mr. President and mine. The most of it was assessed and collected in the North, not in the South; and used by a corrupt Administration in the shape of taxing contracts by levying contributions. Let me tell you some particulars connected with this, as a member of the Investigating Committee on Printing. We made the discovery that the contracts were let, and about twenty per cent. in many cases of the money paid by the Government for services, went into the political fund of which Wendell was the banker. Let me refer you to some of the names and circumstances connected with this State, and with which you will be more familiar. Out of sixty nine contractors, a large majority paid money on contracts into this fund. It was ascertained that a contractor had done about a hundred thousand dollars worth of lithographing for the Government.—He was subpœned but his recollection was so faint that he knew nothing about his own business. (Laughter.) I observed to the chairman of the Investigating Committee that I was not satisfied with his testimony, to the effect that the books were burned. His partner was sent for, and gave his testimony, that the books showed that they paid about twenty thousand dollars out of the one hundred thousand dollars' worth of work, to the party fined. The question asked him was, 'Do the books show that?' He replied, 'Yes.'

Question—Where are the books?

Answer—In the office.

The clerk was sent for, and his testimony agreed with that of the latter. Having obtained the books, and being a book keeper, on investigation I found that about twenty thousand out of the one hundred thousand dollars were paid to the officer, and charged to the account of Printing—a mode which they understood in order to balance the cash book.—When asked how this could be afforded, the reply was that so much the more was charged for doing the work. Thus, Mr. President, you will see how the money came out of your and my pocket to furnish means to those who were engaged in a crusade against the interests and liberties of our country. One of the participants (Mr. Seaman) was ordered by the House to be put on trial, and the next thing we heard was that he had gone to Europe. On going back to Washington to frank some documents—for you know they compelled me to do that personally, although since they lost Minnesota they have ceased to enforce the rule. I found that Mr. Seaman had not been put upon his trial. [Laughter.]

Let me relate another fact. Another contractor handed over, at different times, to Seaman about $20,000, for which he did not take a note, and never expected is back again, but which he called a loan. When asked, "what did you do with that money?" "Why," said he, "don't put this down as testimony; I used it to carry elections in Pennsylvania. More than double that was spent in 1858, but it did not damage you any"—referring to myself.—'I will assure you I did not give a dollar to your district." I asked him why? He replied, "when Mr. Buchanan handed me a letter, asking me to furnish a thousand dollars to beat you, I told him it was no use, and it was only throwing money away."

The matter then got into the New York Tribune and came to Mr. Buchanan's eye. He sent for Wendell and said, "I want you to deny the truth of these statements." Wendell replied, "I cannot." He came and told me what had taken place. And why was not this testimony published? A majority of that committee was Democrats. But, gentlemen, we have a committee now that will probe these fellows to the bottom. It is for this we struggled eight weeks, day and night, for victory, and though you may think it small, I hope there are great results to come from it. Wendell's testimony, lately taken, will show you that he went into the doubtful districts of Pennsylvania and expended large sums of money to defeat us. Whilst suffering from the sting of guilt for engaging in such transactions, Mr. Buchanan sent that pious letter to the Pittsburg Centenniary Celebration, relative to the use of money in elections, and tried to throw it off on us. This is the power behind the throne, and which is used in the North to prostrate and crush the liberties of the people. [Applause.] It would take me a whole day to develop this corruption, and I have only given one or two cases as specimens. Wendell was subsequently brought before the committee; after we had traced enormous sums of money into his hands we asked him to testify. He refused, when we referred him to the law framed by Ritchie, of Allegheny, which gave us power to imprison for contumacy. He came back the next day and testified, and for giving that testimony, and for refusing to go to jail for two weeks, the name of The Union was changed to The Constitution. Wendell was thrown overboard and Bowman brought in.—Wendell then threatened to divulge the whole concern, but just before the meeting of Congress they gave him a contract which would pay for keeping quiet. [Great laughter and immense applause.] Gentlemen, I am a party man above all considerations, and I believe that the interest of the party which I subscribe to is the interest of the country. [Applause.]

I am prepared to enter the contest. We have to elect our members of Congress, our Governor, our President, and rescue the control of this Government from the hands of the spoilers; for, if they are allowed to retain possession four years more, the machinery of the Government will become more complicated, and it is unlikely that we shall be able to assume the power of the Government. Threats have already been made that, if we elect a Republican President, it will dissolve the Union. So we were told if we elected a Speaker.—During the last contest for Speaker, scores of speeches were made, declaring that in the event of the election of a Republican President, the Union should be dissolved. This threat, Mr. President, and it gives me pleasure to state it, has in no single instance come from a Southern Oppositionist or Republican, but in all cases from the Southern portion of the Democratic party, and acquieseed in by Northern doughfaces. The object was to scare new beginners, but the result has been, to scare nobody but the Democrats. I have been in Washington now five years, and let me say, that the proudest feeling I ever attained is, that during the whole struggle, this corrupt Government, with all its money, patronage and power, has never succeeded in corrupting and bringing to their support one single man belonging to our party. [Applause.] Others have been bought by the dozen. [Laughter.]

Voices. Tell us something about the army of Utah.

Well, I have a little information in regard to that, for I have obtained a great deal of experience as well as observation, whilst chasing up thieves for so many years. This Utah matter was not a war to conquer the Mormons, or else why was it not done? It was a war to conquer the freemen of Kansas. The Government had not patronage and power enough. It wanted office to bestow upon the relatives of members of Congress.

These, gentlemen, are samples of what is done at Washington to support this corrupt administration, to defeat your tariff policy and crush out freedom from the territories. [Applause.]

A Voice. What did Hickman say?

Hickman said, in the face of the whole of them, looking at them boldly, "I have been offered more for my vote on the Lecompton iniquity than I am worth." [Applause.] So will Mr. Haskin of New York, say, and Mr. Adrian, of New Jersey, the last of whom was offered a foreign mission as one of the items.

Not a man voted for the Lecompton iniquity but was paid by contracts, money, office, position, or in some way. Some have been paid twice, under the threats of exposing secrets. Such items, for instance, as an Indian Agency. Mind you, not to go out among the Indians, but to remain in the neighborhood of the White House, and watch what was going on there. [Prolonged applause.]

SPEECH OF GOV. POLLOCK.

Gentlemen, Members of this Convention:—I thank you for the honor of calling me to preside over this Convention. My only pledge is, that I will endeavor to perform the duties of the position, impartially and fearlessly.

We have assembled upon a day full of glorious memories—a day hallowed as the natal day of him whose name is the synonym of honor truth and greatness, of justice, liberty, and right. In honoring his memory, let us imitate his virtues, practice his precepts, and act out those principles of truth and patriotism, that made his fame imperishable, his name immortal. Thus influenced, we will be prepared to discharge the duties of this convention in a manner worthy of our cause and Commonwealth.

We are, and are proud to be citizens of Pennsylvania, yet we cannot and will not forget that, in right of our American nationality, we claim the higher and nobler title of American citizens. Pennsylvania, true to every constitutional and confederate duty, has ever been as willing to recognize and maintain the rights of her sister States, as to defend her own. True to all, she tolerates no sentiment of disunion; no traitor dares in her legislative halls or in her popular conventions, even to whisper that odious and detested word. Other States may boast their traitors and their treason; may send their emmissaries from capitol to capitol, charged with the dire mission of hate and discord—may attempt to sever and destroy the patriot's home—the world's last hope for freedom and human rights. Our Commonwealth, with heart full of "liberty, equality and fraternity," frowns down the treason, and clings with all the fervor of her first love to the "Union as it is."

We are here to day as friends of the Union and the Constitution, as advocates of law and order, pledged to obey every Constitutional requirement, to fulfill every legal obligation, and pledged to resist every attempt to prevent the due execution of either law or constitution State or national.

We have no sympathy with political or social fanaticism, whether in the form of Northern Abolitionism, or Southern slavery propagandism; we have no sympathy with fanatics, whether they are John Brown and his confederate traitors in the prisons of Charlestown, Virginia, or the plotters of disunion in the legislative halls of Charlestown, South Carolina. We hold the rights of the States to be sovereign and sacred. Their institutions, political and social, are their own. We have no right, directly or indirectly, to interfere with them. What we claim for ourselves we yield to them, to all—freedom of speech and of the Press—the right, full and entire, to think—to speak, to act as freemen. If this be treason, let the supporters of the present National Administration make the most of it.

As a party opposed to the Administration, its wrongs and corruptions, our principles have been misrepresented, our motives impugned and our veracity questioned. Our avowals and disavowals have alike been discredited. We have been denounced as abetting the mad forays of mad, bad men, as enemies of the constitution and the laws, and as recreant to every social and political duty. These charges are false, as the motives that prompt their utterance are base and infamous. They speak their own condemnation. But so long as the wrongs of Kansas, and the violence and blood that marked the atrocity of those wrongs, find a place in history—so long as the acts of the National Administration, in attempting, over broken promises and violated faith, to force, by the military power of the Government, slavery upon an unwilling people, are not forgotten; so long as corruption stains the Government contracts, and reckless expenditures deplete the national treasury, for partizan purposes; so long as free labor is unprotected, and free laborers despised and regarded as the "mud sills" of society, just so long should the adherents and apologists of President Buchanan speak softly their reproaches of us, or silence their slanders.

Recognizing freedom as the great centre truth of American nationality, liberty the rule, and slavery the exception, liberty national, slavery sectional and local, we believe it to be our right and duty, by every legal and constitutional means, and no other, to prevent the extension of Slavery to free Territories of the Union. These are the principles of the founders of the republic, and it is safe to follow where they lead. These are the doctrines of the Constitution, of its compromises and of all cotemporaneous national legislation on this subject.

As a corrollary to this doctrine, we hold it to be the right of the National Government to protect, by adequate and efficient legislation, the labor, and all the great industrial interests of the American people. This principle, as a party, and as citizens of Pennsylvania, we cannot and will not surrender.

Honesty and economy have become obsolete terms in the financial operations of the National Government. Responsibility is a word without meaning, when applied to many of her financial agents. The evil must be remedied. To rebuke corruption and extravagance, and to secure honesty and economy in State and National expenditures, are both the objects and principles of those opposed to the National Administration.

To protect the elective franchise in its purity, to save from every influence that would impair its efficiency, is a principle dear to every American citizen, a prominent principle of the party represented in this Convention.

As freemen, with free schools and an open Bible, our aim and object should ever be to secure and protect the rights of all—to advance the prosperity of the citizen and the State—to save the Government from demoralization and corruption—to promote the honor and greatness of our common country, and aid her in the accomplishment of her great and glorious mission among the nations of the earth.

But, gentlemen, the immediate duty before us is to select a candidate, a standard bearer in the approaching gubernatorial contest, a contest only preliminary to a more important contest, in which not only our Commonwealth, but the Union is deeply interested. Let us in the performance of our duties as members of this convention, cultivate the spirit of harmony, peace and concord. Let us exhibit to all that we are one in feeling and sentiment, and one in a fixed determination to triumph with and by our principles.

Again, I thank you for the honor conferred, and earnestly invite your cordial co-operation in the preservation of order and the performance of the duties assigned me. This I expect you will cheerfully give.

BEDFORD INQUIRER.

BEDFORD, Pa.

Friday Morning, March 9, 1860.

FEARLESS AND FREE."

D. OVER—Editor and Proprietor.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1860,

HON. SIMON CAMERON,

OF PENNSYLVANIA,

Subject to the decision of the National Convention.)

FOR GOVERNOR:

ANDREW G. CURTIN,

OF CENTRE COUNTY.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A meeting of the citizens of the Borough of Bedford, friendly to the cause of public education, and especially of the parents of children now attending the public school, will be held at the Court House, on the evening of Monday, the 12th of March, inst., for the purpose of making provision for keeping the free schools open until the first day of July next. A full attendance is requested.

MANY CITIZENS.

The Locofoco Convention have nominated Hon. Henry D. Foster of Westmoreland County, as their candidate for Governor. Mr. Foster has the reputation of being "quite a good fellow" and talented gentleman. He, however, cannot make a successful run against Col. And. G. Curtin, who is his equal in all respects. Mr. Foster ran in 1858 for Congress against the Hon. John Covode, in the district composed of the Counties of Westmoreland, Armstrong and Indiana, and was beaten 1092 votes! He will be beaten next October to the tune of from 30,000 to 40,000 votes. Mark the prediction!

Geo. N. Smith of Cambria County, was chosen temporary Chairman over W. P. Schell, by a vote of 68 to 58. The Buchanan wing was the strongest and ruled throughout, although its candidate, Wittie, was overslaughed. Wm. H. Welsh of York County was chosen permanent President. John Cessna, although in favor of Wittie, made a fierce speech in a loud, boasterous voice, against Buchanan's administration. The administration of Buchanan was endorsed, in the resolutions, and Packer's last message, and his course in giving up fugitives to Virginia, approved. The Convention was very stormy and much ill feeling exhibited. Wittie made a speech in which he intimated foul play, in the nomination of Foster. The feeling at Reading was, that Foster will be badly beaten.

To Our Friends!

During the past winter we sent out quite a number of accounts to some of our subscribers, for subscription, varying in amount, from $4 to $20. We stated that we had purchased a property and had near $1000 to pay on the 1st of April, now near at hand, and would be glad if they could make it suit to pay the respective amounts, or at least part of them, but as yet we have not received from these persons $25, in all. Come, friends, don't let us stick, but every one of you try to pay us immediately.

LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW.—The last number of this able Review hae been received. The contents are, The Three Colonies of Australia; Cotton Spinning Machines and their Inventors; China and the War; The Roman Wall; Religious Revivals; Life and Works of Cowper, and Reform Schemes. The articles which appear in the London Quarterly are always interesting, and written by the best minds in Europe. Leonard Scott & Co., 79 Fulton St. N. Y. Price $3 per year.

Ex-Gov. Ford, of Ohio, was elected printer by the House of Representatives, at Washington, on Friday last.

Hon. Edward McPherson, in view of the startling developments of corruption and fraud recently brought to light by Investigating Committees at Washington, in regard to the Public Printing, on Wednesday offered the following resolution in the House:

Resolved, That the Committee on Printing be instructed to inquire into the expediency of abolishing the present system of executing the public printing and of substituting the lowest bidder system, with such guards as will ensure the prompt and faithful performance of the contract.

RATHER UNKIND.—It was rather unkind in the Democracy of Somerset County, the home of Judge Black, to give him the cold shoulder in county convention. That body voted down a resolution recommending the Judge as a candidate for the Presidency—went in for Douglas, and elected an anti-Lecompton delegate to the State Convention. The "frosty sons of thunder," are evidently fermenting Buchanan and his whole tribe. The fight grows interesting by degrees.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—The correspondent of the Philadelphia Sunday Transcript, a neutral paper, with Democratic sympathies, writing from Harrisburg, about the People's State Convention there last week, speaks of Col. Curtin as follows: "The nominee is a scholar, an orator, and a solid man.—Few men within the broad confines of Pennsylvania, possess so much personal popularity."

Blackwood's Magazine, for February, was received a couple of weeks ago. It is an excellent number, and the work deserves to be in the hands of all. Leonard Scott & Co., New York. Price $3 per annum. Price of Blackwood and any one of the British Reviews, $5. The four Reviews and Blackwood, $10. This is an easy and cheap way to get the republications of the great British Monthly and Quarterly Magazines.

COMMUNICATIONS.—We have quite a number of communications on hand, which we have not been able to get into this week's paper. Some of them will appear in our next—the balance will be consigned to the "tomb of the Capulets." Persons writing for the paper should only write on one side of the sheet, and state what they wish to say in as few words as possible.

The great speech of Hon. Edward McPherson, on Disorganization and Disunion, delivered in the national House of Representatives, will be published in a week or two, and we bespeak for it in advance, a careful perusal, and general circulation among all classes.

On account of the long County advertisements, and the speeches delivered at the People's State Convention, which we publish this week, we have not been able to pay proper attention to our paper.

The time for holding the National Convention at Chicago, has been changed from the 13th of June to the 16th of May. This is as it should be.

Read the speeches of Col. Curtin, Hon. John Covode, and Gov. Pollock, in this week's "Inquirer," and hand the paper round to your neighbor.

Presidential Electors.

The Committee appointed for that purpose reported that James Pollock and Thomas M. Howe had been selected as the Electors at large.

LEGISLATURE.

MR. EDITOR:—Permit me space in your paper, to say a few words on the subject of a candidate for the Legislature. As a citizen of Bedford Borough, I feel that the claims of Mr. WM. GRIFFITH, of Union Township, are superior to those of any other named. Mr. Griffith was a candidate a few years ago for the office of Associate Judge, and when it was thought that his withdrawal, and the nomination of another candidate, would conduce to the good of the party, Mr. Griffith cheerfully acquiesced. To him, as much as to any other man, do we now owe the ascendency of correct principles in Union Township. He is an active and effective politician; is well read; and will make a representative of whom we need not feel ashamed. Many of our friends in this part of the County feel that Mr. Griffith deserves and should have the nomination.

Yours,

M'LANE'S VERMIFUGE

FLEMING BROS. SOLE PROPRIETORS.

☞No remedy ever invented has been so successful as the great worm medicine of Dr. M'Lane, prepared by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburg. All who have used it have been equally astonished and delighted at its wonderful energy and efficacy. To publish all the testimonials in its favor would fill volumes; we must therefore content ourselves with a brief abstract of a few of them.

Japhet C. Allen, of Amboy, gave a dose to a child 6 years old, and it brought away 83 worms. He soon after gave another dose to the same child, which brought away 50 more, making 133 worms in about 12 hours.

Andrew Downing, of Cranbury township, Venango county, gave his child one tea-spoonful, and she passed 177 worms. Next morning, on repetition of the dose, she passed 113 more.

Jonathan Houghman, of West Union, Park Co., Ia. writes that he is unable to supply the demand, as the people in his neighborhood say, after a trial of the others, that none is equal to Dr. M'Lane's Vermifuge.

Messrs. D. & J. W. Colton, of Winchester, Ind., happened last spring to get some of this Vermifuge. After selling a few bottles, the demand became so great for it that their stock was soon exhausted. They state that it has produced the best effect wherever used, and is very popular among the people.

☞Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE manufactured by FLEMING BROS. of PITTSBURG, Pa. All other Vermifuges in comparison are worthless. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Vermifuge also his celebrated Liver Pills can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS.

FITS! WHY PROMINENT.

For a long time there was a paragraph making its regular weekly appearance in our columns, with the brief, but emphatic words "Fits! Fits!!" always at the head, to some an offensive caption, but not so to the benevolent and humane, who could sympathize in the sorrows of others. Some persons are shocked at any indication of disease, and are even thrown into nervous excitement on witnessing a hearse or a coffin. Such are to be pitied. We should always strive to look disease and even death in the face with calmness, and especially take every opportunity for alleviating disease. Viewed in this light, the advertisements of S. S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., possess a certain interest, and those who know of any one suffering from Epilepsy, Spasms, or Fits of any kind, should feel it a pleasure to cut out his advertisement, or in some other way send word to the afflicted of the great value of his remedies. They can be sent to any part of the country by mail—Price, $3 per box. Two, $5. Twelve, $24.

Feb. 10, 1860.

The Great Drawback to persons emigrating to the extreme south and western country, is the fear they have of the Fever and Ague—the most direful of all diseases. Every day we hear of persons attacked by this disease and made helpless in a short time, without any means of affording relief.—In view of the great demand for a remedy, Dr. Hostetter has presented his celebrated "Bitters," whose curative powers for all diseases of the stomach have been universally acknowledged. The 'Bitters,' prepared after a long experience and deep study, have received the encomiums of the most eminent physicians, as well as all classes, from every part of our country. To those who doubt their many virtues, all we can say is to try them, and judge for themselves, respectively.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

☞See advertisement in another column.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do, use Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and sold by druggists and storekeepers throughout the United States, Canadas, West Indies and South America, at 75 cents per bottle.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday, the 7th inst, by Rev. R. F. Sample, JAMES CORNELIUS, Esq., of Centerville, Wayne County, Indiana, to ELLEN C. COFFROTH, of Bedford.

With the above notice, we received a large share of most delightful wedding cake—and what is better still—the little "yellow boy." The happy couple have our best wishes for their future welfare. The bride is well known in this Community—her home—and stands high in the estimation of all our citizens, whose good wishes follow her to her western home. We congratulate each, on the good fortune of the other.

On the 1st inst., by H. Ickes Esq., Mr. NATHAN CHILCOAT to Miss MALINDA MILLER, all of Pleasantville, Bedford County.

DIED.

On Monday the 26th ult., ALICE STIVER, daughter of Samuel and Leah Stiver, of Bedford, aged 5 years, 9 months, and nineteen days.

The Reaper Death came in the morning, and took the opening flower to transplant it in the garden of the Lord in a more genial clime, where it shall sweetly bloom clothed with immortal beauty and grateful with heavenly fragrance.

Death came in the morning, and a dear child was conveyed to the embrace of the loving Saviour who said: suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven.

"Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The reaper came that day;
'Twas an angel visited the green earth,
And took the flower away."

R. F. S.

Feb. 28th, Mrs. JEMIMA AKE, consort of John Ake, Esq., aged 68 years, 5 months and 26 days.

On the same day, ALEXANDER G. BOWSER, aged 2 years, 10 months and 28 days.

Public Sale of VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

IN pursuance of an order of the Orphans' Court of Bedford County, there will be sold at public sale upon the premises, on the following described Real Estate, to wit: 270 Acres, 91 perches, more or less, of choice Limestone Land, situate in Colerain Township, Bedford County, Pa., and well known as the "Frederick Smith Farm." About 200 acres are cleared and under good fence, and in a fine state of cultivation, part thereof good meadow. There are also 2 Orchards of choice fruit upon the premises. A fine stream of excellent water flows through the property. The improvements consist, in part, of a good two and a half Story Log House, and Tenant House, a new Barn, 110 feet in length, by 50 in width, constructed in the latest style, with sundry other out-buildings. This Farm is situate in that fertile Valley, known as "Friend's Cove," within 6 miles of Bedford and about the same distance from the termination of the "Bedford Railroad." It is also in a pleasant neighborhood, convenient to good schools, and within 2½ miles of the "Allegheny Male and Female Seminary," at Rainsburg.

There is a fine Church also within sight, and it is surrounded by an intelligent and moral community.

This property is in every way a most desirable one, and persons desiring to purchase would do well to examine it before the time of sale.

TERMS.—Will be made known on day of sale. Title indisputable. Attendance given by

HENRY F. SMITH,
GEO. W. HOUSEHOLDER,
Executors of Frederick Smith, dec'd.

N. B. Persons wishing to examine this property, or ascertain the particulars more fully, can call upon, or address by letter, Henry F. Smith, Rainsburg, Bedford County, Pa.; Geo. W. Householder, Ray's Hill, Bedford county, Pa.; Mann & Spang, Bedford, Pa.

PUBLIC SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

THE subscriber will sell at public sale, on SATURDAY, THE 24TH OF MARCH, inst., a tract of Land, situate in Colerain Tp, Bedford County, containing 120 acres.

The land is part of the Mansion Place of John Kegg, dec'd, decreed to the subscriber, by the Orphans' Court of Bedford County. The improvements are a with logs on the ground for a barn. About 70 acres are cleared and in cultivation, 12 acres of which are good meadow; the residue of the tract is well covered with very fine timber. There is also a small orchard on the premises, with quite a number of fruit trees scattered through the fields.

This land adjoins lands of Simon Stucky, Abraham Weisel and others.

The subscriber will sell at the same time a small lot or piece containing 16 acres, more or less, adjoining his other land, Abraham Weisel and C. Hetrick.—There are on this place, which were erected for the purpose of carrying on a tannery. About 12 acres of the land are cleared and in cultivation, and the balance is well timbered.

Sale to commence at 1 o'clock, P. M.

Terms made known on day of sale.

March 9, 1860. EMANUEL KEGG

To Farmers and Gardeners.

THE subscribers offer for sale 60,000 Barrels of POUDRETTE, made by the LODI MANUFACTURING COMPANY, in Lots to suit Purchasers. This article is in the twentieth year of its introduction into this country, and has outlived fertilizers of every other description, for the following reasons:

1st. It is made from the night soil of the City of New York, by the L. M. Co., who have a capital of $100,000 invested in the business, which is at risk should they make a bad article.

2d. For Corn and Vegetables it is the cheapest, neatest and handiest manure in the world; it can be placed in direct contact with the seed, forces and ripens vegetation two weeks earlier, prevents the cut worm, doubles the crop, and is without disagreeable odor. Three dollars worth or two barrels is all sufficient to manure an acre of corn in the hill.

PRICE—1 bbl. $2—2 bbls. $3.50—5 bbls. $8, and over 6 bbls. $1.50 per barrel, delivered free of cartage, to vessels or railroad in New York City.

A pamphlet containing every information, and certificates from farmers all over the United States, who have used it from two to seventeen years, will be sent free to any one applying for the same.

MOFFAT'S
Vegetable Life Medicines.

A mild yet effectual medicine, composed of the best material known to medical science, for the cleansing of the alimentary canal and relieving the springs and avenues of life of all morbid obstructions and impurities, must be a public blessing and a domestic and individual protection and safeguard, in proportion as it becomes known. Such a medicine the families of the United States have long had in MOFFAT'S CELEBRATED LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS, and the good they have done is inestimable. They have won their high fame and firmly established character by their virtues alone, without the aid of the usual arts of notority or impudent experiment on the faith of the credulous.

In all general derangments of the digestive and alimentary functions, as well as in a vast variety of acute and chronic diseases, their effects are prompt and complete & to excite astonishment.

In rheumatism, settled pain in the organs and limbs, costiveness, piles, liver complaints, jaundice, nervous and bilious attacks, headaches, fever and ague, eruptive diseases, bad aspect of the complexion, indigestion and flatulency, cholics, affections of the bladder and kidneys, dropsy, asthma and bronchitis, rheumatic colds and sore throats, and indeed in almost every conceivable kind of ill health they are invaluable, and will afford certain, and most generally permanent relief. They require neither confinement nor change of diet—they neither prostrate the strength nor give pain—and a more delightful and effectual medicine cannot be procured either for individuals or families.

The proprietor has received for many years and is continually receiving the most fervent and grateful testimonials of their value. Prepared and sold by DR. WM. B. MOFFAT, 335 Broadway, and also by the agents.

Special Notice to Agents.

G. G. EVANS, having purchased the stereotype plates, copyright, etc., of the "Prince of the House of David," "Pillar of Fire," &c., would call the attention of agents to these truly valuable Works.

The "Prince of the House of David," is one of the most popular and best-selling books ever published. Over 180,000 copies have been sold, and it bids fair to rival the "Pilgrim's Progress," or any other similar work.

The "Pillar of Fire," by the same author, is now meeting with a rapid sale, over 90,000 copies have been sold since its publication, and as a companion to the "Prince of the House of David," every reader of that book should purchase a copy.

The "Records of the Revolutionary War," is a book of great interest, and gives a vast amount of information relative to the Soldiers of the Revolution, and is an invaluable book of reference for the descendents of its heroes and all who are interested in Pension Claims, Land Warrants, &c.

The most liberal inducements are offered to Agents, and upon addressing the publisher every information will be given.

LINDSEY'S IMPROVED
BLOOD SEARCHER,
A STANDARD MEDICINE

For the speedy, radical, and effectual cure of ALL DISEASES arising from IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

This medicine has wrought the most miraculous cures in desperate cases of

Scrofula,	Cancerous formations,
Cutaneous Diseases,	Erysipelas, Boils,
Pimples on the face,	Sore Eyes,
Old, Stubborn Ulcers,	Scald Head,
Tetter affections,	Rheumatic Disorders,
Dyspepsia,	Costiveness,
Jaundice,	Salt Rheum,
Mercurial Diseases,	General Debility,
Liver Complaint,	Loss of Appetite,
Low Spirits,	Foul Stomach,

Female Complaints, and all Diseases having their origin in an impure state of the Blood.

The above is a portrait of David McCreary, of Napier township, who, on the 31st day of August, 1858, made affidavit before Justice Gorley that he was treated for the cure of Cancer by three physicians of Bedford County, and by Dr. Newton of the Eclectic College in Cincinnati, for a period of nearly eight months, notwithstanding which, his lip, nose, and a portion of his left cheek were entirely eaten away! He had given up all hope, when he heard of the "Blood Searcher," and was induced to try it. Four bottles cured him, and although sadly disfigured, there is no question but what this invaluable medicine saved his life. The full particulars of this remarkable case may be seen in a circular, which can be had of any of the Agents.

We also refer to the case of Nancy Blakney, of E dertoh, Armstrong county, Pa., cured of Scrofula after being unable to get out of bed for three years.

To the case of a lady in Ansonville, Clearfield county, who was also afflicted with Scrofula in its worst form.

To the case of George Meisel, residing in Carrolltown, Cambria county, Pa., who was so badly afflicted with Cancer that it eat his entire nose off, and his case was worse, if possible, than McCreary's.

The particulars of these cases—every one of which was cured by the use of the Blood Searcher—may also be found in a circular to be had of any of the Agents.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of [illegible] ays be attributed to derangements [illegible] e organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind, then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

FEVER AND AGUE.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED VERMIFUGE AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to
Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated
Vermifuge and Liver Pills.
We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,
For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,
For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of FEVER AND AGUE,
preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,
FLEMING BROTHERS,
PITTSBURGH, PA.
to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to
FLEMING BROS. Pittsburgh, Pa

P.S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Fleming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly, and take none but Dr. M'Lane's, prepared by Fleming Bros. Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward per mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three-cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

For sale by Dr. B. F. Harry, and Reamer & Way, Bedford, and by dealers generally throughout the County.

A MAP OF BEDFORD COUNTY.

I PROPOSE to make a directory Map of Bedford County from actual surveys, if a sufficient number of subscribers can be raised to warrant the undertaking.

The map will show the location of all the citizens, and also their places of business such as stores, Post Offices, Hotels, Manufacturing establishments, Grist Mills, Saw Mills, Shops, &c., also the location of all the public roads, boundary lines, streams, mountains, &c.

Maps of all the towns and large villages will be put on the same sheet, also statistical tables of the County, and (if taken in time) the census of 1860.

PERMANENT OFFICE.
Complying with the urgent request of hundreds of their patients,
Drs. C. M. Fitch and J. W. Sykes
HAVE CONCLUDED TO REMAIN
PERMANENTLY IN PITTSBURGH,
And may be consulted at their office,
NO. 190 PENN STREET,
Opposite St. Clair Hotel PITTSBURGH.

AND may be consulted daily, (except Sundays,) for CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, and all other CHRONIC COMPLAINTS complicated with or causing pulmonary disease, including Catarrh, Heart Disease, Affection of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Female Complaints, etc.

DRS. FITCH & SYKES would state that their treatment of consumption is based upon the fact that the disease exists in the blood and system at large, both before and during its development in the lungs, and they therefore employ Mechanical, Hygienic and Medicinal remedies to purify the blood and strengthen the system. With these they use MEDICAL INHALATIONS, which they value highly, but only as Palliatives, (having no curative effect when used alone,) and invalids are earnestly cautioned against wasting the precious time of curability upon any treatment based upon the plausible, but false idea that the "seat of disease can be reached in a direct manner by Inhalation." For as before stated, the seat of the disease is in the blood and its effects only in the lungs.

☞No charge for consultation.

A list of questions will be sent to those wishing to consult us by letter.
